1. REGISTRATION OF PLAYERS

- a. Rugby League Northland (RLN) shall keep a record of the names and grades of all players who are members of RLN.
- b. RLN has the right to decline a player's membership application
- c. Each playing member when making an application for membership must nominate a club to whom he/she will play for until transferred or cleared in the manner hereafter provided in these by-laws. Player registrations will be accepted on-line or manually by completion of the applicable registration forms, however it is the responsibility of the club who have the player registering to ensure that the on-line registration or applicable forms have been cleared by RLN or in the case of a manual registration, stamp certified.
- d. All new players registering to play rugby league must:
 - i. Produce proof of age by presentation of a birth certificate, Passport, Photographic drivers licence, a verified letter from a Justice of the Peace.
 - ii. The minimum age a player can be registered is four (4) years of age or after 1 January in the year of registration.
- e. For all grades, a copy of the Team List must be available prior to all games for opposition team officials and officials of RLN if called upon. If no Team List or Maintenance Form is produced, then the team cannot take the field.
- f. For all new players who register with a club, but do not take the field for that club and subsequently register with another club, the original registration will be invalid.
- g. No player may register for any club other than the club for which they last played, without the required transfer or clearance.
- h. For any team registration to be accepted by RLN the minimum number of registered players listed must be:

Mini Football (6's – 8's):	6 players
Mod Football (9's-11's):	10 players
International grades (13's – Seniors)	11 players
- i. Mixed gender participation is only able to be played up to 12 years
- j. The minimum age to play Senior/Premiership rugby league is 17 years of age at 1 January in the year of participation.

2. Transfers:

- a. Any player registering for a club other than that for whom he or she last played will require a transfer from the club for whom he or she last played under the following circumstances:
 - i. He or she is returning from playing overseas
 - ii. He or she is returning to the RLN after playing rugby league in any other New Zealand District/Zone and last played in the RLN within the preceding 12 months.
 - iii. He or she is joining an RLN club for the first time, but had played rugby league elsewhere in New Zealand or overseas and is required to transfer from his or her former club under the rules of the New Rugby League Football League.
- b. Only one (1) approved transfer per player can be submitted to the same club in which the player has transferred to in any playing season.
- c.
 - i. Interprovincial and International transfers will be approved by RLN
 - ii. All transfers within Northland will be approved by RLN

- d. All transfers must be completed per online transfer processes
- e. No transfers will be accepted during the period commencing:
 - i. 30th June – 1st November
- d. Only three (3) players from the one (1) Club can be transferred to the same Club per season from each grade.

Transfer Process

- a. Any player wishing to transfer must submit an online transfer request to RLN
- b. In submitting the online request the club to which the player is transferring:
 - i. shall certify that they have no financial obligations to the former club and have read and understood the transfer rules and regulation of the League
 - ii. In clearing the player, the new club has had certified by the player (and if under the age of 18 a parent/guardian), that they have read and understood the transfer rules and regulations for the League and agree to the transfer.

The club from which the player is transferring will have 3 days from the date of the online application to either approve the transfer, refuse to approve the transfer, refuse to approve the transfer, or advise of any conditions.

If no advice is received within 3 days, the transfer will be granted by RLN.

- c. Under no circumstances can a player be denied a transfer if the player does not have any financial or contractual obligations to his or her former club or hold club property from the previous season
 - i. Financial obligations are defined as Annual Club subscriptions
 - ii. Contractual obligations are defined as any signed contract between the player and his/her former club that has not been fulfilled
 - iii. Club property is defined trophies or football playing gear

Appeals

Any player refused a transfer will have the right to appeal to RLN General Manager

- a. Any party aggrieved at the decision of RLN may have the right of appeal to the Appeals committee (as appointed by RLN).
- b. A fee of $200.00 must accompany any appeal lodged and shall be forfeited in the event that the appeal is unsuccessful
- c. Any party aggrieved at a decision of the Appeals committee may have a further appeal to the New Zealand Rugby League Incorporated Appeals Committee, such appeal to be lodged with RLN within 48 hours of the decision being reached and received in writing
- d. A fee of $500 must accompany any appeal lodged to the New Zealand Rugby League Incorporated Appeals Committee

3.Clearances

- a. Any player registering for a club other than that for whom he or she last played will require a clearance from the club for whom he or she last played to confirm he or she has no obligations to his or her club, under the following circumstances:
 - i. He or she last played for a Northland Club or District or Zone team 12 months previously but not exceeding 24 months
 - ii. He or she last played for a Northland club but has played overseas on an amateur clearance over 12 months, but not exceeding 24 months
- b. No clearances will be accepted in the period 30 June to 1 November for all players.
- c. Any player wishing to obtain clearance from his or her former club must submit an online clearance.

The club from whom the player is seeking clearance shall have 3 days from the date of notification to approve or advise of any reason to refuse clearance. If no advice is received within 3 days, the clearance will be granted.

If any clearance is refused, by the player's former club, the former club will serve notice of the reasons to the club to which the player wishes to be cleared. The club will have 14 days to rectify the reasons for refusal of the clearance, and the player will be free to register with his or her new club when this has been done. If no such ratification is completed within 14 days of the notice, the clearance request will be deemed to have been withdrawn.

- d. In submitting an online clearance request, the club to whom the player is applying for a clearance has had the player certify (and if under the age of 18 a parent or guardian) that they have read and understood the transfer/clearance rules and regulations of RLN.

4.Grades
